DAVID TALKS OF ELECTION

Thinks He Is Solid With
Lepers on Molokai
Island.

When Prince David was interviewed as to his prospects on the other islands, he said: "I did not count much on this island, but I expect to run high on the other islands. From the appearance of things on Kauai there was a sufficient evidence that I would poll strongly there. As for Walluku I am afraid that Wilcox will carry the majority. But at the leper settlement everything was favorable to me during my last visit.

"On Hawaii there was evidence that I would poll high in Kona and other places."

J. E. Bush said: "When I was on Kauai, Hanalei, Koloa and Waimea were strong Independent districts. I thought, however, that Prince David would poll three-fourths of the vote there, but judging from the present outcome here I think my estimate is not correct. I think Wilcox may carry Kauai with a majority of 250 or 300 votes."

WILCOX THINKS HE WILL WIN

The Independent Leader
Looks to Other Islands.

Wilcox is hopeful that he will carry the other islands. When interviewed yesterday about his prospects of being elected by a representative of this paper, he said: "According to Kalaupokalani's report, I think I will carry Kauai by a majority of at least 300 votes. Prior to Kalaupokalani's visit to Kauai Prince David had a strong hold in that island. Seeing this, Kalaupokalani stayed there two weeks, returning to Honolulu last Sunday, and worked hard for me and the party. Kalaupokalani feels certain that I will carry the Garden Isle. As for Maui and Molokai I expect to have a majority of 300 votes. This is the impression I have since my last campaign on those islands. If my calculation is correct I think I will poll two-thirds of the votes at the leper settlement. I am depending also on the way that Kaue, one of our Senatorial candidates is polling on Maui. The Home Rule party was very strong at the leper settlement when I was there the last time. As for Hawaii I am in hopes, although it is Parker's birthplace that I will poll a majority of 200 or 300 votes over him. Hello I believe is divided between me and Prince David but in the Kona districts and other places I am very strong."

PRISONERS AT ROCK QUARRY

A New Enterprise Will be Beneficial to Street
Department.

A rock quarry has been opened up near the old Makiki rifle range and the Lunailo Home by the Government. From it will be supplied the stone which will be crushed into macadam for the streets. The laborers will be furnished by Jailor Henry of the Oahu prison. The prisoners will conduct the work of quarrying the stone and operating the crushers and bringing the various grades of crushed rock to the places where it is to be dumped into the Street Department's carts. The men who are placed upon this class of work are known as the "Hard labor" prisoners.

Jailor Henry believes the employment of the prisoners in quarry work solves the problem of what he shall do with the large number of prisoners who have been sentenced to "hard labor." There are 125 of them now under his control. If kept in the prison there would be nothing whatever for them to do. Prison discipline he believes demands that they do some kind of work.

FOOTBALL PRACTICE.

Maile Ilimas Working Hard for the Game on Saturday.

The Maile Ilima football team is steadily practicing for its match with the Sixth Artillery team which takes place on the Oahu College campus next Saturday afternoon.

The Mailes are getting into splendid condition and expect to render a creditable account of themselves in all their games.

The team was severely handicapped in the beginning of the season by several accidents, but everything is now progressing smoothly and the prospects of the green and gold annexing the highest football honors are exceedingly rosy.

HONEYMOON FOOD.

"That's a bride and groom over at that other table."
"How do you know?"
"I heard him say that he would order Kansas corn, so that they could both eat off the same cob."—Detroit Free Press.
